

“ Creating Predictable and Successful Porcelain Veneer and All Ceramic Anterior Restorations “

Course instructor : Frank J.Milnar D.D.S.

Introduction

Too many times it seems dentistry is guilty of “shooting from the hip with little Consideration for the coconsequences.New materials and techniques can be Carefully integrated into the patients goals and objectives,in order to execute a treatment plan with maximum results.The goal of this seminar is to learn to to create consistant esthetic results for partial and full coverage porcelain anterior restorations.A systematic and logical approach for the proper case selection,smile design,shade selection,tooth preparation,provisionalization,laboratory communication,insertion and finishing procedures will be discussed.The knowledge gained will help the participants develop a greater desire and excitement in order to better perform these treatment procedures and meet patients expectations.

Learning objectives

- A) Learn the essential principles of smile design that can result in Improved case Presentation and acceptance
- B) Discover provisionalization techniques to minimize problems and fabricate Provisionals off of an esthetically enhanced model.
- C) Become knowledgable about the essentials of tooth preparation and placement Of all porcelain veneers and crowns
- D) understand the fundamentals of laboratory communication in order to achieve excellent esthetics in your anterior all ceramic restoations.

